Biography:

Stephen Braswell, CLU founded Braswell & Associates upon concluding a thirty-three year career with The Prudential Insurance Company of America as one of its Senior Officers. His vision for Braswell & Associates was to create a peerless international executive search firm specializing in senior executive placement in the financial services industry.

During his tenure with Prudential, Steve held a wide array of top-level positions. He served at the Prudential Property and Casualty Company, President of the Investment Services Group, and President of the company's ten state Southwestern Operations. He also held positions as Chief Personnel Officer, Chief Communications Officer, and Chief Ethics Officer in the Corporation. Prior to these assignments he had served as head of Government Relations in Washington D.C. for four years. During this assignment he was named one of the Outstanding Young Men in America.

Steve's life experiences have been heightened by his leadership roles in various organizations. He served as President of the Alliance of American Insurers, as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Monmouth University, and also in many other professional and civic affiliations. He currently serves as a member of the Russell 20-20; as Curator of the Georgia Historical Society; as a Board Member of the Historic Savannah Foundation; and as a Board Member of the Telfair Museum of Art. Steve also serves on the University of Georgia Libraries Board of Visitors, and is a Member of The Board of Visitors of the Savannah College of Art and Design.

Steve and his wife, Tena have five children and reside in Savannah, Georgia. He is a graduate of Duke University (1962), where he was awarded many distinguished honors. He served as President of the Duke University Student Union and the State Student Legislature of North Carolina.
